

RV hookups to support early birds: Competitors who prefer other lodging do not need to look very far for a place to stay. There are a few motels located about two miles from the range in Bristow and about 15 miles away in Elkhart, IN, are plenty of hotels and motels.

There are also many restaurants in the area to support the competitors and staff. Food service will be offered at the range for those who want something to eat during the day.

More information will become available soon. Right now, the NRA Staff is planning the tournament details and working with the Championship Sponsor to get specials at local lodging facilities for the competitors. Registration starts April 1, 2010. Contact the NRA Rifle Department: 703-267-1475.
