

MN 300 Meter Prone and Three Position Championship Results April 10 and 11, 2010

300 Meter Prone Match:

Saturday's prone match shooting conditions were good with some wind. 13 shooters competed on the 300 M International Electronic C 1 Target. The first match is unlimited sighters followed by 60 shots for record in 60 minutes using iron sights. The second match is any sight, unlimited sighters and 60 shots for record in 60 minutes. There was enough wind to keep the match interesting!

Keeping with International Rules the State Champion is determined by the Iron Sight Match (1)

Match 1 (Iron sight):

Stacey Tamulinas is MN 2010 State Champion shooting a 591

Bill Lair was 2nd with a 577 and Morgan Dietrich was 3rd with a 572.

Special mention goes to Eric Hazelton, MN 2010 Junior Prone State Champion with a 514.

Match 2 (Any sight):

Morgan Dietrich 580 – First

Second place was tied with Chuck Diehl and Bill Lair shooting 579's

Match 3 (Match 1 & 2 aggregate):

Stacey Tamulinas is match winner with a great score of 1169

Bill Lair with a score of 1156 – second place

Morgan Dietrich with a score of 1152 – third place

I wish to thank all the shooters that came to the match! Minneapolis Rifle Club plans to hold the matches again next spring. I hope to see more shooters in 2011.

Thanks!
