Lance Peters Competed but score card was lost en process.

It was a beautiful day with pleasant temperature and humidity. A special hello goes to Ken Bollinger and Tony Thomas who showing an interest in Olympic Air Pistol were persuaded to try cold turkey a Toz in Free Pistol competition. Each was dead game and started their free pistol shooting with a full match. Talk about jumping into the deep end of the pool to start, well, this is it. Well Done Fellows. Each of you established a baseline therefore it was a good start.

For the balance of us, it was either a day of great performances or performances which we would like to greatly forget. Ah, the agony and ecstasy of it all.

Kudo's must go to George Minerich who was able to obtain and now is in the process of installing two electronic targets. The target frames will be set at the 50 meter line and be available for use. That is really a step up in quality of shooting experience.
